WAR PAINT WAS DONNED BY PRESIDENT

WILSON SCORES THE GANGSTERS

Urges Jury and Other Reforms In His Home State.

SPEAKS TO LARGE AUDIENCES

Declares It an Amazing Thing That the People of This Country Have Delayed So Long to Make Themselves Masters of Their Own Government—Essence of the President's Remarks.

Newark, N. J., May 2.—President Wilson returned to New Jersey to speak in support of a proposition to reform the system of drawing grand and petit jurors, which is to be considered at a special session of the legislature next Tuesday. He spoke to large audiences in Newark and Elizabeth and denounced those that are seeking to thwart the reform in scathing language.

Without mentioning names, he assailed the Smith-Nugent political machine in Essex county and declared that it was a most amazing thing that the people of this country have failed for so long to grapple with the situation which confronts them and to make themselves masters of their own government.

The new auditorium here was crowded when the president, accompanied by Secretary Tumulty, Major Rhoades and his secret service guards, reached the platform. He was received with frantic cheers.

The president's remarks were not confined to the jury reform measure as such.

Up to the Democrats. He said he wanted everybody to realize that he was not taken in by the results of the last national election. He explained that the country did not go Democratic, but had turned to the Democratic party as the only united helpful instrument which it had found at hand to accomplish its purposes.

Coming to the Democratic victory in 1910 he said: "To us this was a rejuvenation, a renewed party, and the first question that came up was whether the old gang would run it or not. I won't go into the history of the two years of fighting with the old gang. Nevertheless the old gang did not run it, but they kept under cover even in the lobbies at Trenton, knowing that there were fingers that pointed to their past history. They trembled in the spotlight, and when I was told that just as soon as I went to Washington the old gang would come back I didn't believe it—until I saw it."

"Once more that bulky form of a gentleman who used to personally lead the legislature of New Jersey into disgrace reappeared upon the very floor of the legislature, and again it was that his intrigues were successful in blocking the things he did not wish done. Am I mistaken, have you not heard it, that the same old gang that had for two years been scotched had not been killed? Have you not heard that that system with a snake-like S, that great, sneaking, whispering system, had established itself again in Trenton?"

Mr. Wilson pointed to the inadequacy of any election law so long as the hand of a grand jury is withheld at the chosen moment. The corruption of justice, he said, lies with the system.

Conducted a Fence. Cleveland, O., May 2.—Martin Lavelle was sentenced to serve seven years in the penitentiary here. He pleaded guilty to conducting a fence for the gang of burglars of which the slayers of Patrolman Leroy Bouker were members. Ed Gallagher, James Kelley and Ed McNamara, three of Bouker's assassins, are already at the penitentiary.

CHARLES P. NEILL
Nomination as Commissioner of Labor Statistics Confirmed.

by American Press Association.
When President Wilson nominated Mr. Neill it aroused opposition on the part of several southern senators, who did not like a report he had made on child labor in the cotton mills. Mr. Neill has been United States commissioner of labor since Feb. 1, 1905.

BIG SHOPS CRIPPLED BY STRIKE

Clerks in Buffalo Department Stores Go Out On Strike.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 2.—A strike was called by clerks in Buffalo department stores, and one store and the 5 and 19 cent shops were forced to close. All the department stores suffered more or less, mainly because of the lack of drivers for the delivery wagons. The strike was planned and called by the management of the local Socialist paper, which claims the credit of calling the recent streetcar strike, which resulted in a victory for the men. There was no disorder.

Bryan Is Seeing The Japs At Their Homes

Sacramento, Cal., May 2.—Secretary Bryan spent two hours in inspecting a typical settlement of Japanese farmers at Florin, near Sacramento. Here about 1,500 Japanese are crowded into a small district, where they now control the berry and fruit crops. A school was also visited where over half the pupils were Japanese, some of them over 16 years old.

Get Mail From South Pole. London, May 2.—A 2-cent stamp will bring a letter from the south pole to London. Mr. Ward, the former premier of New Zealand, who is now here, has received two letters so stamped, which were mailed by the late Captain Scott of the British Antarctic expedition. They were sent via New Zealand.

FULL CONTEXT NOW VIEWED BY NATION

NEW LAND BILL STANDS THE TEST

Does Not Contravene the Treaty Rights of Japan.

Only Course Open to the Japanese Government Is the Bringing of an Action In the Courts of the United States to Test the Federal Naturalization Law—Latest Developments In California Flurry.

Washington, May 2.—The receipt of all details of the land bill now pending in the California legislature has convinced officials here that the proposed legislation is now fairly within the treaty obligations of the United States to Japan. If the bill is passed in the present form, Japan, as Washington officials view the situation, will not attempt to attack the law in the courts on the ground that it contravenes her treaty rights.

About the only course open to Japan, it is admitted, will be a protest to this government on the ground that the alien land law constitutes discrimination against a friendly power and the bringing of an action in the courts of the United States to test the federal naturalization law. It is the latter possibility which officials here consider likely. Smarting under the discrimination of the California law, Japan will seek to have the issue decided squarely as to whether the United States intends to do bar Japanese aliens from being naturalized.

If Japan could obtain a decision from the United States supreme court in her favor, it would open the way for ownership of land in California, even under the terms of the new bill. It is acknowledged, however, that such an outcome would be only a temporary victory, because an irresistible demand would be made by the western states for legislation excluding the Japanese from the privilege of becoming naturalized.

The belief here is that Japan, if she adopts the course of testing the naturalization law, will be actuated solely by a desire to create an embarrassing situation for the United States.

MONEY IS TAKEN FROM SHROUD

Bellevue, O., May 2.—When the body of Mrs. C. C. Bontrager, who died at West Liberty, was prepared for burial, by mistake a skirt belonging to a friend of the deceased was used as a shroud. Not until after the funeral was the mistake discovered, and in the skirt pocket was a purse containing $25. Relatives of the deceased, fearing graverobbers and wishing to return the money, disinterred the body in Alexander cemetery.

Finally Gets a Job Under Wilson Plum Tree

OHIO MAN LANDS

Warwick of Cincinnati Assistant Comptroller of Treasury.

Washington, May 2.—Walter W. Warwick of Cincinnati was appointed by President Wilson assistant comptroller of the treasury. He is an attorney and is the first Ohio man to be named for federal office by President Wilson. Mr. Warwick is at present a member of the federal economy efficiency commission.

Chief Justice of Claims Court. Washington, May 2.—Edward K. Campbell, a lawyer of Birmingham, was nominated to be chief justice of the United States court of claims, to succeed the late Justice Stanton J. Peelle. Mr. Campbell has been a life-long friend of Representative Underwood, Democratic house leader, and identified with all of the Underwood political campaigns.

GIVES HIS ANSWER TO NUMBER OF QUERIES

McADOO EXPLAINS

Recent Actions Not Due to Prospective Tight Money Situation.

Washington, May 2.—In answer to numerous inquiries, Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo repeated his statement that his recent action in accepting New York city revenue bonds and other city and state bonds as security for government deposits, and in deciding to put an additional $10,000,000 in national banks and demanding 2 per cent interest on all deposits, was not in any way due to an existing or prospective tight money situation. He repeated that he announced he would accept New York city revenue bonds in answer to inquiries from New York banks. A prospective tight money situation would scarcely warrant his demanding interest on all deposits, it was pointed out, and the additional $10,000,000 is being turned over to any banks that may want it. It is a clear business proposition to bring in additional interest to the government. It was said further that such action had neither been sought nor objected to by any national bank.

NOT A GLOWING REPORT GIVEN

SLAVERY IN PHILIPPINES

Secretary Worcester Charges Evil Exists Even In Manila.

Washington, May 2.—Senator Borah raised the question in the senate whether human slavery exists in the Philippines. The senator secured the adoption of a resolution calling on the secretary of war for information on the subject and submitted a letter from James C. Worcester, secretary of state for the Philippines, which charged that slaves are bought and sold in the southern islands of the Philippine archipelago and that human slavery exists in Manila. Worcester states in his letter that for three years the Philippines assembly tried to extend the anti-slavery laws that now prevail over the northern provinces to the southern or Mohammedan islands.

WOULD NOT DODGE THE DUTY

GARDNER WILLING

Would Not Dodge Chairmanship of Congressional Committee.

Washington, May 2.—Representative A. P. Gardner of Massachusetts created considerable excitement among Republicans by announcing that he is a candidate for the chairmanship of the Republican congressional committee. Mr. Gardner occupies a middle ground between the two Republican factions in the house. In his statement Mr. Gardner expressed the belief that the Republican congressional committee should be reorganized. He advocated the selection of new leaders, and stated frankly that he was willing to serve.

Interesting Spectacle On Historic Battlefield

AT GETTYSBURG

Union and Confederate Veterans Will Meet With Outstretched Hands.

Middletown, N. Y., May 2.—The interesting spectacle of Union and Confederate veterans of the civil war occupying the same ground and advancing upon each other in the same manner as took place in the battle of Gettysburg 50 years ago, will be seen at the great reunion to be held on that battlefield in July, with the difference that instead of advancing upon pointed bayonets the veterans will meet with outstretched hands. New York, Ohio and other states have appropriated money to send veterans to this reunion, and it is expected there will be more veterans present than have been on the field since the civil war.

Steel Company to Build New Town. Youngstown, O., May 2.—It is reported that the Carnegie Steel company will start at once on the construction of its proposed new plant at McDonald, north of the Ohio plant, where the company will build a new town. The proposition will cost at least $10,000,000.

Water Main Breaks. Toledo, O., May 2.—A broken water main at the city pumping station placed Toledo at great fire risk. Manufacturing plants depending on water diminished their working forces.

A man living at Auburn, New York, had a severe attack of kidney and bladder trouble. Being a working man, not wanting to lose time, nor run up a heavy doctor's bill, he cured himself completely by using Foley's Kidney Pills. A year later he says: "It is a pleasure to report that the cure was permanent." He has had no return whatever of the pain, backache and burning. His name is J. A. Farmer, and he says: "Of course I recommend Foley Kidney Pills as a very effective cure for kidney and bladder trouble." Blackmer and Tanquary.

Poole, 2217 California St., Omaha, writes: "My daughter had a severe cough and cold but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound knocked it out in no time. My wife would not keep house without it. We have used it for years, always with good results." Blackmer and Tanquary.

Findings of the skeleton of a man in Compton creek near Johnson's Crossing on the 5th of December, 1909, and which was never identified, although a number of articles were found in the tattered clothing.

One article bearing the name "Mr. C. H. Banks" led to the belief that the man belonged to the family of Banks, colored, located in Ross county, but no word of such a man being missing was ever received here.

WEATHER NOT TO BLAME.

It's Your Condition.

"This weather simply takes the life right out of me, I can hardly drag one foot after the other," said a run-down, tired-out woman, the other day.

We want to say to every such person in this vicinity. Don't blame the weather, it's your condition. You need a strengthening tonic and the very best we know is Vinol which is a combination of the two most world-famed tonics, namely, the medicinal, curative elements of cod liver oil and tonic iron, for the blood.

A case has just come to our attention from Vineland, N. J. Mrs. Allen T. Godfrey says: "I never fail to say a good word for Vinol, for it restored my strength and vigor after I had been in a badly run-down condition for several months. Every one who is broken in health ought to know that Vinol will build them up and make them strong."

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Blackmer & Tanquary, Druggists, Washington C. H., Ohio.

Content to Accept the Changes

Legislative proposals and legislative enactments decidedly different from the old order of things are being born in such numbers and administrative policies entirely different from anything which has gone before are being launched with so much confidence that the people have long since ceased to experience either a shock or a thrill when something new is promulgated.

The people refuse longer to be surprised and have not only come to expect frequent suggestions of new ideas in government, but have arrived at a state of mind when nothing is new to them. The only way to thrill or shock the people now would be to have the troop of new ideas cease to march by in great numbers.

The multitude of new ideas suggested has, it seems, served one wholesome purpose. It has stopped the scare which heretofore has come up with the likelihood of change in the existing order. So many utterly impractical suggestions have been made and thrown into the discard by the law makers that the changes which have been advocated for long years and always, heretofore created unrest or worse in the business world, are considered very commonplace and harmless in comparison.

Consequently the fear of panic has gone glimmering and long advocated changes promise to take place without any resulting confusion which has been so fearful a reality in past years.

The world of business and the world of finance refuse now to be alarmed, at the old familiar suggestions of change and the promise for a continuation of quiet and prosperity is bright indeed notwithstanding the fact that changes heretofore regarded as radical, are made.

Agitation is not, at all times, soothing in its effect upon business, by any means. It does, however, serve a great purpose in a government of the people, which is still in the making.

Present conditions are one illustration of a rare effect of constant agitation—the creation of business calm and contentment which gives great promise for a satisfactory trying out of governmental changes.

That is a condition of the public mind and temper, the value of which to the nation can scarcely be overestimated.

In that placid feeling of security which comes with a realization that the really harmful suggestions are not to be adopted there is little chance now that taking ideas which have long been knocking at the door for admittance into the government household, will cause any harmful commotion.

We Are Still Standing on the Threshold of American History

United States Has Always Been a World Power

By JOHN BASSETT MOORE,
Counselor to the State Department

NOTHING could be more erroneous than the supposition that the United States had, as a result of certain changes in its habits, SUD- DENLY become within the past few years a world power.

The United States has in reality ALWAYS BEEN, IN THE FULLEST AND HIGHEST SENSE, A WORLD POWER, and the record of its achievements in the promotion and spread of liberal and humane doctrine is one in which no American need hesitate to own a patriotic pride.

The advent of the United States of America was of a significance which, although not unfelt at the time, has in the nature of things attained FARREACHING EFFECTS that could not be foreseen.

THE MOMENTOUS CHANGES OF THE LAST FEW YEARS MAKE US REALIZE THAT WE ARE STILL ONLY STANDING ON THE THRESHOLD OF AMERICAN HISTORY. IT IS AS IF ITS DOMAIN WERE THE FUTURE RATHER THAN THE PAST.

The United States, having proclaimed as the basis of its political system the consent of the government, has CHERISHED AS ITS IDEAL A PEACEFUL NATION, always guided by reason and justice. In order that this ideal might be attained it perceives the necessity of establishing international relations on DEFINITE AND SURE FOUNDATIONS. Its predilection for legal matters has found expression in the employment of arbitration.

Poetry For Today

MY OWN OHIO.

(Dedicated to Governor James M. Cox by Kate Brownlee Sherwood.)

Stricken with famine and fever and flood,

Driven by tempest, tornado and snow,

Beaten and bruised where she militant stood,

Temples and palaces tottering low;

Yet to her promises plighted and true,

She shall be conqueror fighting with fate,

Summer shall scatter her merces like dew,

Courage shall crown her with honors glate,

Blinded with sorrow we bend to the blow,

My Own Ohio!

Has she not traveled through desolate days,

Narrated her children to glorious deeds,

Harnessed the heavens and widened the ways,

Up to the summits where victory leads?

Has she not builded her altars and shrines,

Garlanded freshly with roses and rue,

Where in the van of the jubilant lines

Freedom still beckons to dare and to do?

Ours not to falter, but onward to go,

My Own Ohio!

Rise in your splendor, beloved, arise,

Myriad millions are bidding you wake,

Face unto face, through adversity wise,

Each for all others and all for love's sake!

Comradeship calls, with beneficent cry,

Clad with compassion and valiant in deed,

Heart, binding heart, or we perish and die—

Transfiguration in communal need,

God of our Fathers, Thy favor bestow,

My Own Ohio!

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

To plant 35,000 more acres in Kansas with sugar beets is the latest plan of the U. S. Sugar and Land company at Garden City. This will mean an annual production of 70,000 more tons of beets or more than 8000 more tons of sugar to the 16,000 ton capacity at present. Many large beet sugar factories are planning big increases in output this fall.

Plans for a club house at Washington City, to be the national headquarters of club women, are being made and national organizations of women are arranging to raise funds for the enterprise. The local branch of Women's Federated clubs has begun a campaign to insure the success of the undertaking. It is proposed to establish the club so that visiting club women will find all the comforts of home and be independent of hotels and boarding houses when they visit the capital.

In Chicago recently Robert Worden deadlocked a coroner's jury for 18 days and forced a disengagement. Worden would not vote to exonerate a physician whose flying auto ran down a child.

The Balkan states are arranging boycotts against the goods of their powerful neighbors. Turkey, at the time of the annexation crisis, caused Austria many millions of direct loss by boycotting her goods, losses from which she has not yet recovered. Thus the news that a boycott is being arranged has excited public opinion in Austria far more than would have done any insults to the country itself. The Italians too, are extremely irritated by the news that the Greeks are arranging a boycott of Italian goods.

American League park will have the largest capacity of any ball park in the world, when the season of 1914 opens. Changes contemplated and for which bids are being received involve an immense expenditure. The park, with completed additions will seat up to 40,000. The grandstand will alone seat 25,000 and Comiskey plans to add enough bleachers to provide accommodations for more spectators than can get into the Polo grounds at New York.

Formation of a Trackless Transportation company in Massachusetts is the first step in the latest development in transportation field. The vehicles are trolley cars, which, although dependent for power upon the usual overhead feed line, run on the highway rather than on steel rails. While this is new in this country it has been in successful operation in foreign lands and in many foreign cities. The chief advantages are a lower cost of construction and a material saving in operating. Average cost of constructing a trolley line is $40,000 per mile against $10,000 for the trackless, while operating expense is 40 cents per mile against 12 for the new method. These figures are for Massachusetts. Any and all kinds of road are used for the trackless trolley.

The Ansco Way to Artistic Results

THE DELIGHTS of Photography! Do you know them? To note and indelibly record for future viewing a scene of beauty or action—a waterfall in a flowered glen—a child at play—a speedy train or automobile; in other words, to give free rein and full development to our love for the beautiful, the artistic, the unusual—in all these lies the charm of photography.

If you have denied yourself these pleasure-thrills it can be only for one or two reasons—you think it expensive—or you think it beyond your skill. Glance through our stock and you will find one or more trust-worthy Cameras priced to your purse. We will show you in ten minutes how easy it is to operate an ANSCO. You will find the different models light, compact and well made.

Do not hesitate to invest in an ANSCO, for in a short time you will find yourself amply rewarded for your enthusiasm by pictures that will never fail in interest to you and your friends. In vacation time alone your ANSCO will prove an inseparable companion, always ready, a true and faithful recorder of all those scenes that make you say "The best time I ever had."

DELBERT C. HAYS.

YOU know how it is when you buy anything; here or anywhere else. You like to feel that you're getting good big value for your money; whatever you pay. That's perfectly natural.

Now that's just the way we feel about the shoes we sell; we like to feel when you pay us your money, that we're giving you something that's well worth it. Because we realize how important value for the money is to you; and how important it is to the good of our business to give value.

When we sell a pair of Selz shoes we know just what we're selling, and we know that the value is in them. Some makers cheapen their shoes in parts you can't see; put scrap leather in the heels, use pieced inner soles, cheap counters, hemlock instead of oak-tanned soles.

The trouble with shoes is that you can't see these frauds in the finished shoe; you find them when you wear the shoes; and then it's too late to change. Just as an evidence of the thorough honesty of Selz shoes, every pair has on it a guarantee of satisfaction to the wearer; to be sure of satisfaction be sure you buy Selz shoes. They're all Selz here.

Social Session Greatly Enjoyed

THIS INTERESTS EVERY WOMAN.

A family doctor said recently that women come to him thinking that they have female trouble, but when he treats them for their kidneys and bladder, they soon recover. This is worth knowing, and also that Foley's Kidney Pills are the best and safest medicine at such times. You cannot get better purer medicine for backache, weary dragged out feeling, aching joints, irregular kidney and bladder action and nervousness due to kidney troubles. Try them. They are tonic in action, quick in results. Blackmer and Tanquary. Adv.

Hunt Block Ready July 1

The R. C. Hunt block immediately south of the Dahl-Millickan building will be ready for occupancy by July 1st according to the present plans, and the Elks will be in their new home on the second floor of the building by that time.

Workmen are now busily engaged in finishing the building on the inside, and also building the stairway walls, besides working in the basement to have it completed when the remainder of the building is ready for occupancy.

The first floor will be an ideal business room, and the block is a valuable addition to Main street and the city in general. Within the next two months the street will be clear of debris and the west side of Main street will once more become one of the most used by pedestrians.

So far as known the building to occupy the corner of the Hunt lot upon the site of the Imperial hotel, will not be erected this year, and may not even be started. Mr. Hunt is still in doubt as to whether he will commence the structure or wait until next year.

Annual Chautauqua

Greenfield's annual chautauqua will be held this year beginning August 7th and extending over August 11th.

It will be the eighth annual assembly and more money will be expended in securing a program than ever before.

It is planned to hold a home coming in connection with the chautauqua.

A slight cold in a child or a grown person holds possibilities of the gravest nature. Croup may come on suddenly in the night, bronchitis or pneumonia may develop and severe catarrhal troubles and consumption are possible results. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound nips a cold at the outset, cures croup quickly, checks a deep-seated racking cough, and heals inflamed membranes. It does not constipate and contains no opiates. ## More Heavy Steel For the C. H. & D.

C. H. & D. employees at various points along the road state that within a short time 85 pound rails will be laid from Musselman to this city, in order to take care of the heavy hauling over the road which is expected to steadily increase.

According to the unofficial report the heavy steel will be laid the entire distance, part of it already being in place, and a number of additional trains will be run over the division between the Main line of the B. & O. to this city.

Street Oiling Near at Hand

The question of oiling streets to eliminate the dust nuisance is now occupying the attention of a great many Washington citizens, and it is understood that the first oil will be applied Saturday morning or first of the coming week, the fluid now being expected on every train.

Citizens have grown discouraged in waiting for the plan worked out by the city council, and which will not be in condition to adopt for some weeks yet, when most of the streets will probably be oiled.

Two men are in the street oiling business this year, Fred Mark and John McDonald, both having ordered a large quantity of oil for the streets, and both have been approached by many citizens who are very anxious to have the streets sprinkled with oil in front of their property.

Mr. Mark has ordered two tanks, each containing 8,000 gallons, and Mr. McDonald has one car of 10,000 gallons. Both men are expecting the oil to arrive at any hour, and will commence the work of distributing it at once.

Mr. Mark announces that the cost will be the same as last year with the exception of the addition of 2½c on the gallon, that representing the advance in cost of the fluid. Last year the oil was 1c per gallon, and this year it will be six and one-half cents per gallon. Mr. Mark states that he uses ½ gallon to each square yard, and Mr. McDonald says that he will use one-third of a gallon to each square yard, and distribute the oil he has ordered at actual cost of oil, teams and men.

Mr. Mark intends starting the work of oiling on North street just as soon as the oil arrives, and states that he already has parts of North, Temple, Hinde, Court, Market, East, Washington avenue and Columbus avenue under contract, and will oil them just as quickly as he can get to them. He also reports other streets that will probably be added to the list within a short time.

"Clincher" Paint

We know a paint which holds to the wood like a driven nail. Seasoned lumber is porous. The pores are the empty sap-cells. White lead paint, which dries on the wood in the form of a solid, elastic film, fastens into these pores, and the whole coat of paint is actually riveted like armor-plate to the surface it decorates and protects.

ANCHOR WHITE LEAD

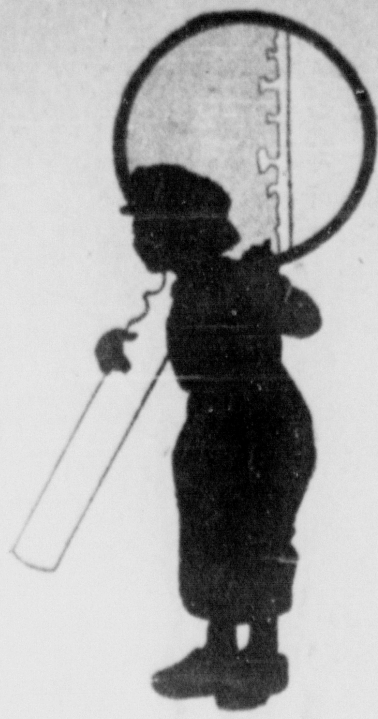

(Dutch Boy Trade Mark)

And DUTCH BOY LINSEED OIL

make the paint that spreads into a solid body. It becomes a part of the wood itself—an outer layer that preserves the life of the lumber.

We sell it as well as other painting requisites. Come in and have a talk with us about painting.

Democrats Make Progress On Underwood Tariff Bill.

THEY DOMINATE THE SITUATION

Wool, Sugar and Agricultural Schedules of the Measure Passed Just as Reported, Despite Protests From Western and Southern Representatives—Bill Not Likely To Be Put Through by Saturday Night.

Washington, May 2.—Although members were in an ugly frame of mind, the house made progress on the Underwood tariff bill. The opposition to the measure, composed of Republican and Bull Moose members, resentful of the work of the Democratic majority, continued to batter at the bill, but they were defeated at every turn. Their amendments were turned down as fast as they were presented.

Three important schedules were put through, but as time goes on the feelings of the Republicans and Bull Moose are becoming more bitter and it may take a special rule to put the bill through in record time in accordance with the ambition of Leader Underwood.

The wool, sugar and agricultural schedules were passed just as they were reported. Members of the opposition fretted and fumed but to no purpose. When the critics of the bill reached a point in their frenzy where they threatened to blow up Leader Underwood on the measure, and debate on the paragraph under discussion was brought to a close. Mr. Underwood had the votes and that's all there was to it.

The wool schedule stirred up excitement, members from sugar states were reduced almost to tears over the sugar schedule, while those from western states became almost riotous when the rates of the agricultural schedule was read. But the "steam roller" worked without a break in every instance.

Unless a special rule is adopted the Underwood bill can not possibly be put through by Saturday night, as was planned by Leader Underwood.

The opposition attempted to prove that certain features of the agricultural schedule had been framed in the interest of the beef trust. Republican insisted that the welfare of the trust must have been in the minds of the Democrats when they admitted meat duty free and retained cattle on the dutiable list at 10 per cent.

DAUGHERTY DISCUSSES REHABILITATION PLAN

Won't Yield the Chairmanship to Please Progressives.

Columbus, O., May 2.—Chairman Harry M. Daugherty of the Republican state executive committee announced a state conference of the party is to be held "in due time," and that the proposal of the Republican members of the legislature that the chairmen and members of the state executive and state central committees resign should be submitted to that conference.

The state chairman says he will not resign "except upon the request of the committee or at least upon the request of persons who were loyal Republicans and who have only the best interests of the party at heart." He makes it clear he is not going to give way to please those who call themselves Progressives.

He makes no overtures for the return of the Progressives, though saying they should be encouraged to come back. He discusses means of rehabilitating the Republican party. To that end he makes three suggestions, that a state conference be held, that straight Republican tickets be put up at every election, and, as a special inducement to get voters to the primary that the primary pollbook be accepted as a registry for the ensuing general election.
